Asian Studies
New Major Advising Form

In order to declare the major in Asian Studies, fill out this application with the Asian Studies Undergraduate Adviser and submit the following to the Asian Studies office in 175 PLC (346-5082):

1. The Asian Studies Undergraduate Program Planner, available in 175 PLC, outlining the courses you have taken and plan to take to complete your major. For assistance please consult with the Undergraduate Adviser by emailing astuga@uoregon.edu.
2. A copy of your most recent transcripts for advising purposes (an unofficial copy is permissible, not required for entering freshman)

Name__________________________________________

Student ID: ______________________________________

UO Email: ____________________________

Class Rank (choose one) Freshmen Sophomore Junior Senior

Citizenship: ____________________________

Native Language: ____________________________

Languages Studied: ____________________________

Regional Focus (choose one): China Japan Korea South Asia Southeast Asia

Discipline/Thematic Focus: ____________________________

Suggestions include: Food, Film, Religion, Pop Culture, Literature, Linguistics, Art, War/International Relations, or Business/Economy/Development

Additional Majors and Minors (please list): ____________________________

Faculty Advisor: ____________________________

Why did you choose to major in Asian Studies? ____________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

What is/are your field(s) of interest? (e.g. environmental issues, history, literature, etc.)

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

What is your career plan?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________